

Air India In-flight Protocol for Repatriation Flights

Air India will provide gloves, mask and Vizer to each passenger.

For long haul flights, Air India would give 3 packed meals upfront for the passenger to consume at intervals.

For flights from UK or more than 6 hours flying time, Air India would provide two packed food packets. This is to avoid exposure between the crew and the passengers.

All Air India crew operating repatriation flights would be tested.