

Embassy of India
Jakarta

ADVISORY

The official results of the Indonesian Presidential and Parliamentary elections are expected to be announced by the General Election Commission (KPU) on 22 May 2019.

2. There is a likelihood of demonstrations in the vicinity of office of the KPU, the Election Supervisory Board (BAWASLU) and other public offices. There is could be traffic disruptions in the areas around the vicinity of the demonstrations. The National Police has advised the public not to join any such planned rally/demonstration for security reasons.

3. The Indonesian National Police has also stated that there is a heightened risk of terrorist attack on 22 May 2019.

4. Non-essential travel to the areas as above where demonstrations are likely to take place in Jakarta may be avoided.
